Will Anderson safled on the Umbria yesterday to play in the British open championship at St. Andrews on June 7 and 8. Since 1994 Scotland and Fngland have been sending their golling youngsters all over the world to smooth the way for the spread of the old to smooth the way for the spread of the old game, a large proportion of them coming to the United States; but Anderson is the first to go back to have a try at the open obtainingship. Another of the Scotch clan, afeel, smith of the Nassau Country Chib, will fellow hims on Wednesday. Should either acceed in getting into the money it will be a Unimph for no entry from a club outside of the United Kingdom has ever been in one of the seven places. To win is always a 10 to 1 chance even for the first favorite.

Anderson has been blaving his best care.

Anderson has been playing his best game chroughout the winter in the fieldth, winding up his steining with a 72 at Apawamis last week, a performance deemed good enough to beat nine men in ten at old St. Andrew's at any time, while Aleck Smith, who holds the record at Nassau of 66, has also been golfing all winter, and one of his successes was to gain the open championship of south-ern California for the third time.

"I will play from the Apawamis Club and as an American, for as I arrived here at sixteen all I know of the game has been learned here." said: Anderson on the steamer. "It will be a great treat to watch Braid, White, Vardon and the other great exponents play over the famous links, and I am tickled at the opportunity to pay my first visit to St. Andrews as a competitor in such distinguished drews as a competitor in such distinguished company.

"While some of our amateurs claim that St. Andrews is a trick course, I know from what has been told me by professionals that, barring three or four holes, it is straightforward golfing enough. I am feeling fine and playing my game, so I will have nothing to grumble about, so matter where I finish. I will be back in five weeks, for which period the Apawamis Club has given me leave of absence. George Kinsman of St. Andrews will be my substitute while I am abroad.

I go first to Edinburg, to visit my mother and sisters, and then to St. Andrews for some practise before the start. There will be many Americans there, I understand, and also George S. Lyons, the Canadian amateur champion, so I will be among friends from the outset."

At Van Cortlandt Park Thursday afternoon Aleck Smith made his first appearance in a match since his return from the Pacific Coast, where he won for the third winter the open championship of Southern California. Smith and Charles Marshall were partners against Bernard Nicholis and Robert Carter. The latter pair were 3 down at the turn, as Smith went out in 34. He came home in 46, a total of 80, but Nicholis was back in 41 and this helped in squaring the match. The best ball score was 77 for each side.

Ander son, last Sunday, in a match with A. H. Hart, made a 72 for the 6, 169 yard course of the Apawamis Club. The amateur record is 73, made by Finday Douglas in 1903, and the professional record is 72, made last summer and again on Sunday by Anderson. The record is an indication that Anderson is on his best same.

COLUMBIA WINS AT THE NET. Local Players Defeat Yale in Dual Lawn

Tennis Meet by 5 to 4. The Columbia lawn tennis team y esterday won out in the annual dual meet with Yale, letd on the court of the New York Lawn Tennis Club, 123d street and Manhattan avenue. The final score of the meet was 5 matches to 4. Columbia winning only through making a clean sweep in the doubles. The outcome of the meet was in doubt up to the very last doubles match, which was won chiefly through the steady play of George Moore, Jr., who paired with J. H. A. Williams, defeated W. Marcus and S. Porter by 6-2, 11-9. The deciding set was closely contested, as the score shows. Moore's careful game also won for him in his singles match with S

Fiel of Yale, whom he beat 6-0, 9-7.
Robert Le Roy of Columbia, the intercollegiate champion in the singles, rather up expectedly met defeat in his match with Karl H. Behr, the Yale captain. Le Roy had a lame shoulder, which made his returns and service uncertain. He pulled out the first set. but Behr had him figured well by that time and carried off the next two and the match, allowing Le Roy only two games in the Roy had his revenge later, however, when he and Kenneth Bulkley feated Behr and G. MILITARY ATHLETIC LEAGUE WINDS UP ITS SHOW.

Competitive Drill in the Afternoon Won by Mount Pleasant Boys-Third Battery Attracts Attention-Records Broken in the Clesing of the Athletic Events.

All the sailors and soldiers went marching home last night, after the week of the Military Show at the Oarden, which has been up to the high grade set by the Military Athetic League throughout the nine years of its "Our league will hold a show greater than ever next year," was the parting remark of Col. George R. Dyer, the president. "In the meantime we will work in every way for the general encouragement, development and regulation of athletics among organized military bodies."

Our militia boys have done yeoman service Our militia boys have done yeoman service all the week and the Regulars of the Fifteenth Cavalry. Eighth Infantry and Third Battery, Field Artillery, have broken all records-for cleverness in their features set by previous detachments to the shows. The Third Bat-tery has been a source of inspiration to the Grand Army visitors, for they remembered that it was made our first horse battery in 1861 and as such continued through the war.

The veterans told, too, that it was one of the oldest and most famous organizations in the American army. It became a field battery in 1857, though it had existed before from the formation of the Second Regiment of Artillery. The Third Battery has been identified with every war the country has had since the Revolution, winning especial prominence at Palo Alto, which was essentially an artillery battle. In the war with Spain was a part of the first command that sailed for Santiago. By a singular coincidence, it opened fire as "Grimes' Battery" on San Juan Hill at about the same hour on July 1, that it fired the first shot at Gettsyburg. There are names of over fifty battles inscribed on the staff of the guidon, and, in the rush of Spanish war and Rebellion veterans to talk of old times, not a man of the Third Battery has known what it was to go thirsty during the show.

The Canadian militie, the Highlanders The Canadian militir, the Highlanders have also been the recipients of all sorts of praise. "Come again soon!" was the farewell to them last night.

Brevet Major-General George Moore

Smith was the reviewing officer in the after-noon, when a feature was a competitive drill for prizes between detachments from the Peekskill Milltary Academy, St. John's Cotlege, Fordham, and Mount Pleasant Military Academy, of Ossining. Groups of partizans lege, Fordham, and Mount Pleasant Military Academy, of Ossining. Groups of partizans in the galleries enlivened the competition with their school yells as the boys went through the manual. After a review, the companies were drilled separately for the prizes. The Mount Pleasant boys were in full dress uniforms, with white cross belts, St. John's lads in rough rider suits of khaki and flapping Teddy Roosevelt hats, and the Peekskill boys in blue service uniforms. All were natty in looks and clever in evolutions, the points scored one above the other being in matters of detail.

The Peekskill boys entered in files of four at the double quick and turned at the run to company frout, which made a hit as a contrast to the formal marching of the others. Each corps went through the manual and extended order drill, the St. John's boys being especially good in the skirmishing.

The Mount Pleasant boys won the two sets of colors, scoring 90 per cent. Peekskill was second, with ST, and St. John's third, with 70 per cent. The judges were Col. Stokes of the Twenty-third, Col. Jarvis of the Eighth and Lieut. Christie. Capt. P. Lombardo commanded the Mount Pleasant Academy detachment, Capt. Paul C. Rabors for Peekskill and Capt. Richard Baker the Fordham boys.

The evening review was made under the eye of Brig. Gen. Frederick Deut Grant, U. S. A. The greeting to the jackies and the "Kilties" was especially hearty, as the spectators realized it was their last appearance for a year. The athletic events of the evening produced three new Millitary Athletic League records. In the furlong sprint, Lawson Robertson of the Thirteenth Artillery, defeated P. J. Walsh of the Twenty-second Engineers in 23 4-5 seconds, clipping a fifth of a second from the record, held by Robertson's company mate. Harry Hillman. In the quarter mile, Dan Meyer, the Junior and senior national 440 yard champion, representing the Seventy-fourth Regiment of Buffalo, clipped a fifth from another of Hillman's records. Meyer's time was 53 seconds.

Oscar Goerke of t

fifth of a second, the standard set by C. E. Schofield of the Twenty-second Engineers in 1901.

The race for the point championship was won, not unexpectdly, by the Thirteenth Artillery. The Brooklynites had a total of 79 points. The Twenty-second Regiment was second, with 42 points, and the others were: Twelfth Regiment, 30, Seventy-first Regiment, 13; Seventy-fourth Regiment, 12; Eighth Regiment, 11. Twenty-third Regiment, 5; Sixty-fifth Regiment, 1 First Naval Battalion and Fourth Regiment, 1 each.

Sack Race—Won by F. M. Pierson, Twenty-second Regiment; R. J. Walnwright, Thirteenth Regiment, account; W. X. Flood, Twenty-second Regiment, third. Time, 23 - 5 seconds.

One Mile Bicycle Race, Mültary Championship—Won by Oscar Goerke, Thirteenth Regiment; Owen J. Devine. Thirteenth Regiment, second: Severett Ott, Twelfth Regiment, Hird. Time, 3 minutes 4-5 seconds.

220 Yard Run, Milliary Championship—Won by Lawson Robertson. Thirteenth Regiment: Patrick J. Walsh. Twenty-second Regiment, second: Staye C. Northridge, Twenty-third Pegiment, third. Time, 23 4-5 seconds: a new Military Athletic League record.

Vanderbilt Pleased With Cup Bacer. Though no official announcement was made by the Automobile Club of America yesterday, it was learned that W. K. Vander-bilt, Jr., was very much pleased with the Locomobile racer entered for the Bennett in France for its owner, and Dr. Harold E. Themas of Chicago early yesterday morning took the machine out to the country estate of Mr. Vanderbilt at Great Neck, L. 1., for a test, according to the rules of the A. C. A. for a test, according to the rules of the A. C. A. racing committee, of which Mr. Vanderbilt is a mearber. The latter, using the 90 horse-power Mercedes car with which he competed on the Florida beach last winter, set the pace for the cup candidate around a 25 mile course on the north side of Long Island. The roads traversed are very hilly, but in spite of this the Locomobile made the 25 miles in 35 minutes. Mr. Vanderbilt later made a careful examination of the engine and is said to be very favorably impressed with it.

Band of music in a four horse carryall. Then came Grand Marshal Nathan Ely, with the distinguished guests following. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, Louis F. Haffen, George Cromwell, William McAdoo, John J. Pallas and Henry C. Schraeder occupied the first two carriages point. Among the visiting horsemen J. E. Meyer of Newark made a splendid showing with the ribbon decorations on his horse, that attracted much attention. Later his sufficiently to get a ribbon. J. A. Van Winkle represented the Paterson club. He drove the pacing pair Don Shelton, 2:2314, and Alberta Shedd, 2.25%. Robert Pierce, also from the Silk City, drove Frank McGraw.

In one respect the parade yesterday did not equal that of last year. The number of horsewomen who drove was less. It must be said, however, that what was lacking in numbers was fully made up in quality. It is doubtful if any city in the world could produce half a dozen more skilled horsewomen than those who drove in the line yesterday. Miss Morosini attracted the most attention, for her hitch was decidedly novel. Her skill with the reins is unquestioned. Mrs. Lehman Straus had a model hitch for park or parade and she looked thoroughly at ease. Mrs. J. G. Peterson drove a high mettled pacer with a fast record, but her skill kept him at all times under control. It is a good guess that she can drive him a mile to his record. Mrs. George Huber handled her horse with skill. Miss Edith Hard not only handleds her horse well in the parade but she showed so well later on that the udges pinned a ribbon to the bridle. After the line had passed up the Speedway and returned to the reviewing stand, where the judges and special guests awaited, the awards were made for the three best way and returned to the reviewing stand, where the judges and special guests awaited, the awards were made for the three best appointed turnouts in the parade. The blue went to Miss Morosini for her triple hitch. Glorious, Glory and Peacock. Harry L. Toplitz's pair, Judy and Bcardman, and Graehine Grattan received the red. The yellow went to Dr. Gill's Auditor B., a winner at the last national show.

The horse show followed and it was really the feature of the day. A good show ring had been made half way up to High Bridge, where 2,000 spectators could have a good view aside from the reserved seats. The judges were men well known in the stand at the National Horse Show, and several of the classes that came into the ring were of National Show quality. J. Howard Ford, Carl S. Burr, Jr., and John H. Shults, Jr., judged the trotters: James T. Hyde, Richard F. Carmen and George B. Hulme were named to Judge the shorttail horses.

Class I was for trotters to speed wagon. An even dozen came through the gate, and a good lot they were. It took the judges a long time to plok the winners, and then the blue went to Vesper Belle, driven by C. K. Sacketf. Kitty Giltner, 2:15%, driven by J. E. Meyer, won the red. The yellow went to Auditor B. Class 6 for pacers to speed wagons brought another large field into the ring. Many were Speedway favorites, but they did not get in the ribbons. The blue went to George H. and the red to Fanny H. Miss Edith Hard wen the yellow with Fanny K. 2-15%. Mrs. Peterson handled Luke Morgan, 2:17%, with sufficient skill to deserve a knot, but she had to leave without it. Class 2 for teams was not hard to decide as regards the blue, for Harry Toplitz's Judge Boardman and Graehme Grattan simply smothered the others. As between the champion trotting team West Wilkes, 2:13%, and El Mora, 2:13%, and Sir George and Sir Walter. In Class 4 for teams to runabouts, Fire Chief Croker drove an attractive cross matched pair, bleck and chestnut. The crowd liked the hitch, but the ludges only seven to John R. Dire

WOMAN TAKES DRIVING HONORS

Miss Giulia Morosini Takes Blue Ribbon in Speedway Parade.

The sixth annual parade of the Road Drivers' Association, held yesterday, may well be termed the banner event in the history of the association. Not only was the number in the line of march yesterday larger than ever before, but the horse show proved the crowning feature and is sure to become a fixture hereafter.

Contrary to the usual custom, the start was made promptly. This was essential, as the starting point at Seventy-second street and Riverside Drive madethe journey to the Speedway a long one. First came a squad of mounted police followed by the Old Guard Band of music in a four horse carryall. Then
